49er	Dr. Leonard	Spaceman	CAN 123	Trevor Parekh	Royal St. Lawrence YC	Dr Spaceman (pronounced Spa-che-min), is a long time veteran of the 49er fleet. This summer he paired back with his 2003-2004 crew Tej Trevor Parekh to take a shot at both 49er.ca and 49erNA grand prix. These beer guzzling weekend warriors don't train much, but with their experience they are always in the top pack battling it out with the Canadian and American national team members.
49er	Paul	Throop	CAN 1075	Alex Throop	OYS and RCYC	Coming down from the Great White North looking to sail in warm Oyster Bay waters, the Throop brothers enjoy camping in their spare time.
49er	Jack	Toland	USA 1450	Andrew Colebrook	Royal Vancouver YC/ Seattle YC - Oakcliff	Jack Toland and Andrew Colebrook are Seattle sailors who have recently stepped into the 49er. At 16 and 20 respectively they are some of the youngest sailors within the class. When not sailing Jack can be found swimming, biking or running and Andrew out on the basketball court.
49er	Finn	Nilsen	USA 791	Alek Nilsen	St. FYC - Oakcliff	"Finn and Alek Nilsen are a brother 49er team from the San Francisco Bay. They have been sailing together since 2005, first in the 29er then two and a half years ago they transitioned into the 49er. They are looking forward to test there skills in the 49er as they organize themselves for future international events."
49er	Jon	Ladha	CAN1268	Daniel Inkpen
49er	Thomas	Barrows	USA 1395	Joseph Morris	YCYC - Oakcliff	Thomas and Joe are a relatively recent paring. They sailed and didn't party on the Yale team in college. Thomas competed for the USVI in the 2008 Olympics and has recently decided to represent the US for the next games. Joe is from Annapolis MD where he survived growing up with 4 sisters.

49erFX	Paris	Henken	USA 826	Helena Scutt	San Diego YC, Seattle YC St.FYC - Oakcliff	Paris and Helena grew up sailing 29ers which has made for a natural transition into the 49erFX. Paris is entering her senior year of high school in Coronado, CA and Helena, originally from Seattle, is entering her senior year at Stanford University. Paris sails for Coronado HS and is on the US Sailing Development Team. Helena sails for Stanford and is a member of the US Sailing Team Sperry Top-Sider. They have had a blast training on San Francisco Bay and San Diego Bay this summer and look forward to Nationals, their second event together.
49erFX	Kristen	Lane	USA 1447	Christine Neville	Tiburon CA - Oakcliff	Kristen Lane & Christine Neville have been sailing the FX together since March. Over the past few months they have competed in several regattas in Europe. Before jumping into this new Olympic class, Christine sailed the Laser Radial while Kristen came from the 29erXX. They both call San Francisco home and represent the St. Francis and Richmond Yacht Clubs.

49erFX	Joanna	Moore	CAN 711	Alexandra Edgar	Eagle harbor YC	Joanna and Alexandra are from the West coast and excited to sail and race at this fantastic new US Sailing Center.
49erFX	Arielle	Morgan	CAN 819	Heather Myatt	Royal St. Lawrence YC	Arielle Morgan and Heather Myatt are 49er FX sailors from Montreal, Quebec. They have been sailing together for 7 years and training in the 49er FX since January. They are looking forward to some American competition at U.S. Nationals.
49erFX	Erin	Rafuse	CAN812	Danielle Boyd	RNSYC / KYC - Halifax
49erFX	Marie-Pier	Alary	CAN 9	Katie Yeo	Quebec
NACRA	Sarah	Newberry	USA 180	John Casey	Miami YC - LMSA - Oakcliff	Sarah and John are on the second year of their campaigning. They are searching for their second national championship. John is also a favorite at Oakcliff as he has become part of the family.
NACRA	Louisa	Chafee	USA 137	Lucas Adams	Oakcliff	Louisa Chafee and Lucas Adams have competed together in college and summer regattas, but are looking forward to testing out the high-tech Nacra17. Ms. Chafee is hoping to be competitive in the class during the upcoming years.
NACRA	Robbie	Daniel	USA 172	Sarah Streater	Lauderdale YC	Robbie Daniel was on the US sailing team from 1995 to 2007. Robbie has been coaching and sailing with Sarah Streater for about 1 1/2 years. Sarah is crossing over from Lasers. She is discovering the complexity of being a great crew and notes that physically crewing a Nacra is more demanding than sailing a Laser.
NACRA	David	Hein	USA -	Katie Flood	US Sailing Development Team -	David Hein (16) and Katie Flood (17) are looking forward to their first event sailing together on the Nacra 17 in Oakcliff. They sailed together at CASE in Long beach (F18), took 2nd place at Spring Fever Regatta in Hartwell, GA (F16), and both attended the Olympic Multihull Clinic in Miami. Based out of the Miami Yacht Club, this young duo trains with Red Gear Racing and began competing together in March of this year. Both Katie and Dave finished in the top five at U.S F16 Nationals in Racine, Wisconsin in August. They hope to earn a spot on the Olympic Development team, and to ultimately represent the United States together in Rio. Keep up with them online at Cleverpig.org/katieflood and at www.davidheinsailing.com .
NACRA	Taylor	Reiss	USA 123	Catherine Shanahan	USST-STs St. Andrews Bay YC	Taylor Reiss and Catherine Shanahan recently teamed up to campaign in the Nacra 17 class. Taylor has been racing in several multihull classes since he was 12, and in June he lured Catherine over to the "dark side" where she quickly became addicted to the incredible speed and excitement of these amazing boats.
NACRA	Sandra	Tartaglino	USA 33	Colin Page	NENSA - Tiverton RI	Tripp and Sandra have been competing against each other in multihulls, most often F-18s for several years. They have recently teamed up to compete on the Nacra 17 and explore Olympic possibilities.
NACRA	Luke	Ramsay	CAN 100	Nikola Girke	Royal Vancouver YC Wind Athletes CAN	Nikola and Luke have been longtime friends and members of the Canadian National Sailing Team for a combined 20 years & a combined 4 Olympics across 3 classes. With great hometown support of Wind Athletes Canada, the Royal Vancouver Yacht Club, Simply Choices Nutrition and Helly Hansen these Nacra 17 rookies are looking to take the International Multihull Class by storm.
NACRA	Enrique	Figuroa	PUR 029	Carla Maltrasi	DRD/EDVC/FVPR Oakcliff	Four Olympics and 4 World titles, 3 pan am Golds etc. etc. - enough said!
NACRA	Molly	Carapiet	USA 138	Ryan Pesch	StFYC, SFYC Oakcliff	Molly Carapiet and Ryan decided that two hulls might be more fun than one, transitioning from the 49er to Nacra. Molly has sailed Olympic dinghies for 14 year and yet she just graduated Dartmouth Business School. You do the math. Ryan and Molly are currently looking for sponsorship which may include Carvel for their post race chocolate ice cream tradition.
NACRA	Bob	Merrick	USA --	Tyler Burd	RI Oakcliff	Bob is a silver medalist from Sydney, 3 time All American from URI - trying to break the gender gap in the Nacra Class
NACRA	Michael	Easton	USA 170	McKenzie Wilson	NENSA - Oakcliff	F18 Sailor Mike has teamed up with Nacra 17 rookie McKenzie with an eye on competing at the highest international level. McKenzie is from just across the Sound so is a familiar fixture at Oakcliff.
NACRA	Sammy	Steele	USA 171	Eric Lawrence	San Francisco - Oakcliff	Sammy and Eric are excited to sail their first regatta as a team at Oakcliff. Eric grew up sailing catamarans and is looking forward to getting back into it. Sammy sails for Stanford University but this is her first experience in a Nacra.
NACRA	Colin	Page	USA 178	Max Seebeck	Naples FL - Oakcliff	Colin Page, 23 is a true Floridian, living in Boca coaching at Ft. Lauderdale YC and sailing cats. He's traveled north following the cats but seems to have trouble leaving his southern sensibilities behind with prolific use of ma'am and sir. Colin picked Oakcliff Acorn Max Seebeck who decided to 'hang around' and is super psyched to be sailing on these high performance cats.
